Our global team of 250 professionals serve clients from our 13 offices in New York, London, Munich, Berlin, Frankfurt, Brussels, Paris, Tokyo, Seoul, Hong Kong, Dubai, Abu Dhabi and Stockholm - where Kekst CNC is JKL. As trusted advisors, the firm brings expertise on high stakes matters like: M&A, shareholder activism and governance, crisis communications, restructurings, regulatory investigations, litigation support, investor relations, IPO communications, issues and reputation management, change management and employee engagement, as well as digital and social communications. Kekst CNC is part of the Publicis Groupe, the world's third largest communications group.

Our clients need us, and we therefore need you.
To support our offices in Germany we are hiring fulltime

Associates (m/f/d)

About the Role:

If you gained first experiences in strategic communications, PR, legal or other relevant areas and are ready for the next step in your career, then this is an exciting opportunity for you to gain wide exposure in a generalist role. Forming part of client teams from day one you will contribute on a tactical and strategic level. You will support our global teams with delivering an array of work for our clients across a range of industries.

Our aim is to develop our Associates into the next generation of leaders in Kekst CNC.

Main Responsibilities:

- Conduct research (media audits, market intelligence reports) and make use of market analytics tools to contribute to the development of communications strategies
- Draft communications materials for internal and external stakeholders, e.g. communications plans, press releases and presentations
- Support the planning, organisation and management of various events including interviews, media roundtables, and press conferences
- Plan and execute social media campaigns, including using data analytics tools to measure campaign output and online engagement
- Develop excellent client knowledge and understanding – to give concise, accurate overviews of each client's business, communications objectives and PR strategy
- Stay up to date with trends, issues and challenges that affect clients' businesses and industries, through media coverage and regulatory developments
- Support of our team in client acquisition and development of existing mandates
- Build and maintain excellent client relationships
- Develop and nurture a strong network with relevant stakeholders, including journalists, analysts and other key contacts

Requirements:

- Completed degree in, for example, finance, economics, political or communication sciences
- Initial practical experience in communication (preferably in a communications consultancy or the communications department of a company)

- Enthusiasm: for precise communication, clients, teamwork and multi-tasking
- Networking, thinking outside the box, excellent verbal communication and presentation skills
- Fluent spoken and written English and German, additional language skills are welcomed
- Digital and social media capabilities are a plus: content creation, social media listening, community management, paid media management and influencer campaigns
- Strong command of all Microsoft Office programmes

What we offer:

Kekst CNC offers an inspiring working atmosphere, characterized by the highest level of professionalism in a challenging environment, lots of fun at work and an open, supportive corporate culture. The German offices are sociable and dynamic workplaces and continue to grow. Although you would be based in Germany, you would work on cross-border mandates and interact with clients and colleagues all over the globe. In addition to exciting development opportunities, we offer substantial training modules, a competitive salary, exchange programs, bonus scheme and benefits package. During your time as an Associate you will be assigned a professional development advisor, who will accompany you during this stage of your career.
