To support our growing team in Germany, we are hiring a fulltime

(Senior) Consultant with experience in finance and M&A (m/f/d)

Munich, Frankfurt or Berlin

About this role

If you thrive on the buzz of being involved in complex mandates, with experts from a broad range of different disciplines, often on a tight timeline, and have a flair for crafting compelling storylines/messaging in high pressured situations, this role may be for you. You will often form your own team or be part of a team that manages a critical part of the client's life cycle.

Main responsibilities

- Managing or participating in client projects with a focus on financial and M&A communications, including IPOs, M&A transactions, takeover bids, restructuring and insolvency, financial reports, and investor relations
- Acting as a senior advisor to our clients on a range of issues from strategy development to operational implementation
- Designing communication concepts, content and measures based on data-driven insights

Requirements

- Degree or equivalent in Finance, Economics, Law (or similar)
- Several years' experience in financial communications, either in-house or at an agency
- An appreciation of current trends in financial communications, for example sustainable investing and shareholder activism
- Project management experience and an ability to work in a high-intensity environment
- Proficient with relevant digital tools and excellent Microsoft Office skills
- A deep interest in current economic and political affairs
- Outstanding verbal and written communication skills, both in English and German - additional languages can be an advantage.
- Excellent organisational, time and priority management skills and ability to effectively manage multiple projects at once
- Analytical, results-oriented and able to work independently, while also leading and working closely with client teams

What we offer

Kekst CNC offers an inspiring working atmosphere, characterized by the highest level of professionalism in a challenging environment, lots of fun at work and an open corporate culture. The German offices are sociable and dynamic workplaces and continue to grow. Although you would be based in Germany, you would work on cross-border mandates and interact with clients and colleagues all over the globe. Our aim is to develop you to become a Partner with our company. To this purpose you will have professional development advisors who accompany you during your career with us. In addition to exciting development opportunities, we offer a competitive salary, bonus scheme and benefits package, as well as varied learning and development programmes.
