

We are looking for our next Summer and/or Student Associates to our Stockholm office

We are a leading global strategic communications advisor. Until January 2021, we operated under the legacy brand JKL, a pioneer in the intersection of business, politics, and media, which played an active role in creating and establishing the strategic communications industry in the Nordics. Kekst CNC was formed in 2017/18 through the combination of three leading strategic communications advisors, all owned by Publicis Groupe – American Kekst, German-British CNC and Swedish JKL.

What you will do

As a Summer and/or Student Associate, you will be a part of a team of strategic communication advisors, you will develop your consultancy skills and professional network while working on projects that have a real impact.

Your days will include but are not limited to

- Staying on top of trends, issues and challenges that affect clients' businesses and industries, through media coverage and regulatory developments
- Conducting research such as media audits, market intelligence reports, monitoring regulatory developments and contributing to the development of communications strategies, making use of analytical tools
- Draft communications materials, including communications plans, press releases and presentations

The right fit

We are looking for students who have the ability to articulately express themselves in both Swedish and English. You aspire to exceed client expectations, always being one step ahead and demonstrate determination, curiosity, analytical strength and creativity in all your undertakings. An extra edge is if you have an interest in financial transactions, M&A and IPOs or in social media analysis, content marketing and digital campaigns.

What we offer

With us, you will gain experience in PR and strategic communications, you will learn from the industry's sharpest minds in a dynamic, inspiring and global workplace characterized by the highest level of professionalism. We see that the best possible set up is to join us as a Summer Associate and then continuing the partnership as a Student Associate during the semester. It is not unusual that our Summer and Student associates later join us as full-time team members once they've graduated.
